Six young people in the throes of puberty, overseen by grown-ups who barely managed to escape childhood themselves, learn that winning isn't everything and that losing doesn't necessarily make you a loser. This hilarious tale of overachievers' angst chronicles the experience of six adolescent outsiders vying for the spelling championship of a lifetime. The show's Tony Award-winning creative team has created the unlikeliest of hit musicals about the unlikeliest of heroes: a quirky yet charming cast of outsiders for whom a spelling bee is the one place where they can stand out and fit in at the same time.

Sexual Perversity in Chicago

A Play by David Mamet

Sexual Perversity in Chicago

A Play by David Mamet

April 28-30, 7:30 p.m.

May 1, 3 p.m.

May 6-7, 7:30 p.m.

Dorothy Menker Theater

The Obie award-winning Sexual Perversity in Chicago "takes funny and painful digs at the fantasies and distances of the contemporary sexual game," according to The New York Times. Two male office workers, Danny and Bernie, are on the make. Danny meets Deborah in a library and soon they are lovers as well as roommates. The other couple, Bernie and Joan, seem to have the politics of sex down pat but are as confused as their more naive counterparts. After much comic drama, the two men end as they started, talking a good game.

“Marvelously observant... A glittering mosaic of tiny, deadly muzzle flashes from the war between men and women among the filing cabinets and single bars.”

– The New York Times

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child."
